About the State

That Vermont apple growers are beginning to realize their possibilities is indicated by the fact that a Grand Isle firm has sold a quantity of McIntosh and Spitzenberg fruit for $3.50 per box this fall.

The Thanksgiving bird will soar high this year. Turkeys are few and far between, as great difficulty has been experienced in raising them, because of the many thundersome prices for western birds last year ranged from 25 to 35 cents per pound, and for natives from 30 to 35.

While hunting deer last week, Harold Potter of Clarendon had a narrow escape from a serious, if not a fatal, injury. At the time, Mr. Potter was in a stooping position, with his back to an unknown hunter, who for some reason or other fired at him. The bullet passed through Potter's clothing and slightly grazed his body. After hearing the shout of Potter, the intruder disappeared in the forest.

Marie Dressler is going to give her entire company a Christmas party at her home in Windsor. Marie is determined that the affair will be no ordinary indoors event, and she has decided to utilize an immense apple tree which stands in the front yard, close to the house. In its branches will be hung more than a hundred tiny lanterns. The star will give one present to each of her company, and her guests must climb the tree to get their gifts. It is promised, however, that the gifts for ladies will be suspended from the lower branches.

Treasurer M. J. Townsend of the Bennington Baseball association has submitted his annual report to the board of directors, showing that the organization ran behind $40.85 during the season. The total receipts from subscriptions and gate money were $8,968.84, out of which a salary team was maintained and a new grandstand constructed at Tudor park. The report was delayed because the directors had hoped to clear up the small indebtedness on a small scale. The directors have not yet organized, but a team will be maintained next season.

FORTY YEARS' SEARCH

For Owner of Bible Rewarded with Success—Request Carried Out.
After forty years, Cyrus D. Gibson of Bennington has traced the ownership of a Bible found by him on the field of battle after the second attack on Fort Fisher, N. C. The Bible is a small pocket-size volume, with a brass clasp and on the fly leaf was written in a clear, fine hand the following: "Should I be slain on the battle field or die in a house of confinement, I leave this Bible to the owner of the same, to be sold for the benefit of the poor and needy."

Mr. Gibson was a member of C. C.
160th New York infantry, and upon his return from the war tried in every way to trace the ownership of the Bible, but had his letters returned without finding the man's brother-in-law in Rockingham, N. C., and learned from him that neither of the men, Homer or F. E. Legrande, ever returned from the war, and that both were taken prisoners at Fort Fisher.

SITE OF STATUE SELECTED.
Chose Fitting Spot in Gettysburg for Memorial to Maj.-Gen. Wells.

The party of first Vermont cavalrymen, who left October 27 for Gettysburg to select a site for the bronze statue of Major General William Wells, have returned, delighted with the trip and with the fine site obtained for the monument. After thoroughly going over the ground covered by the first Vermont cavalry, on its memorable march, July 3, 1863, the commission decided upon a large boulder on Confederate avenue, near the bridge over Plum creek, where the regiment crossed on that eventful day. Col. John P. Nicholson of the Gettysburg national park commission stated that a road would be cut through the woods and kept open from the spot where the Vermont cavalry monument now stands to the site of the new monument.

Major General Wells, whose statue in bronze will be placed there, led the deperate charge.

HOSSEY AFTER HEIGHT RECORD.
Wright Aviator Trying for Prize for 10,000-foot Altitude.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 10.—Announcing that he would try for the grand altitude prize of $2,500, offered by the Baltimore American and Star, Archie Hossey in the record-breaking Wright biplane went aloft yesterday afternoon in the first event of the day at the aviation meet.
The wind was blowing about 16 miles an hour and was steady. The winner of the prize must ascend 10,000 feet to secure it. Hossey ascended at 1:54 P. M.
At two o'clock he was apparently 5,000 feet high, with good prospects of attaining his ambition to break the record and capture the money. The wind was blowing 16 miles an hour, as Hossey rose in steadily against a beautiful blue sky in clouds. At 2:15 Latham in his Antoinette started on a cross-country flight to Fort Carroll in Baltimore harbor and return.

Family Troubles. Why be wretched and grope in the dark? I will locate an absent child, wife or husband. I will tell you who is false to you, who is deceiving you and who is true. I have saved many a home almost ruined by meddlesome neighbors. You don't have to tell me anything, for I will tell you all about it and never ask a question.
He stands alone in his unrivaled power to read the future of humankind.

Strangely fascinating are the words that come from the lips of this most interesting man, whose journey of life has taken him through all the renowned psychic schools of Egypt, India and Europe. It seems indeed as if his knowledge must come from that mysterious world of which we all would learn, yet longing, cannot know. He looks as far away into the dim, mysterious future, the great beyond—across the dark ocean which separates the human body from the fitting soul—and THAT WHICH IS TO BE told—told with a clearness and precision that leaves no room for doubt. The innermost secrets of your life are laid bare by his mysterious perceptive mind, and while he gives names, dates, facts and figures, he visits you disfurnished at the revelations that he makes.

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Is Rivalled by Human Hair Where Dandruff is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all the trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

BOBBIN SHOP BURNED
AT NEWPORT YESTERDAY

Loss to Orleans Bobbin Company Was $10,000—Another Fire Occurred In Private House.

Newport, Nov. 10.—A fire which totally destroyed the factory of the Orleans Bobbin company of this place, broke out a few minutes before 2 o'clock yesterday morning and before an alarm could be rung in, the whole structure was a mass of flames. The fire department directed its efforts to saving the surrounding property as it was plain the building was doomed. L. P. Austin, the principal owner, said that there were over 1,000,000 bobbins in the process of manufacture and one lot of extra fine ones which were nearly finished.

He estimated his loss at $10,000, with insurance to cover the stock, amounting to $4,000.
The origin of the fire cannot be ascertained and is a mystery, although many think it was set by an incendiary. When asked by a reporter if he would rebuild, Mr. Austin said he was undecided. Five years ago on the 8th day of October, Mr. Austin met a similar misfortune, losing all his property without any insurance.

A second alarm of fire within 14 hours was sounded for a stubborn blaze in the house of Mrs. M. Comerford, an aged woman who lives alone. When the fire was discovered, it had gained much headway and the house being old, it burned briskly. The fire is said to have started in newspapers on the shelves, when a stove cover was lifted.

The house is practically ruined and will be a total loss. Mrs. Comerford refused to have her fire insurance renewed when it expired three months ago. The estimated loss is $500.

$100—REWARD—$100.
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and directly upon the system, it destroys the foundation of the disease, and giving the system strength by building up the system,
